

Back issues Available as of March 1, 2007

Order form Please print

Quantity	Description	Unit price	Texas sales tax	Item total
	Texas Child Care Quarterly 1 year subscription	$25.00	$2.06
	Texas Child Care Quarterly 2 year subscription	$40.00	$3.60
	Back issues	$6.25	.51

Total enclosed (make check payable to Texas Child Care)

Name	Program name
Address
City	State	ZIP
Phone number	E-mail address

Limited quantities of back issues of Texas Child Care Quarterly are available for sale. Please print this form, check the box next to the back issue(s) you would like to purchase, and mail the form with a check or money order. We do not accept credit cards.

Do we pay Texas state sales tax?

Pay Texas state sales tax only if you are a Texas resident who is not tax-exempt. If you need to pay sales tax, add 8.25 percent to your total purchase (51 cents for each back issue). If you are exempt from Texas state sales tax, please provide documentation.

Can I send a purchase order?

Yes, agencies, organizations, and institutions can submit a purchase order by mail to the address above, or by fax to (512) 441-6522.

Is there a discount for large orders?

Yes, there is a 20 percent bulk discount when you order 10 or more back issues mailed to the same address.

I have additional questions. Can I email you?

Yes, send subscription and back issue questions to orders@childcarequarterly.com

Mail to Texas Child Care, P.O. Box 162881 Austin, Texas 78716-2881

Spring 2007

Standards, assessments, and portfolios:
 Getting started ■ Holidays and celebrations: Making them fit into sound early childhood practice ■ Too old for read-alouds? Never! ■ Sticks and Stones: Words can hurt ■ Wiggle your toes: Activities for little feet ■ Which hand? Brains, fine motor skills, and holding a pencil

Back issues 2006 – 2004 Available as of March 1, 2007

Spring 2006
Early literacy: The essentials, Part 3: Phonological awareness and the alphabet ■ School-age care: Support literacy with fun activities ■ What to do when you can't find you: Exposing children to culturally reflective literature ■ A new tool for the classroom: The digital camera ■ Cook smart! Eat smart!

Summer 2006
Early literacy: The essentials, Part 4: Supporting and assessing emergent reading and writing ■ Snip, clip, and learn: Using old magazines and newspapers in the early childhood classroom ■ Parent handbooks that help sell your program ■ Puzzles: Set the table for learning ■ Insects and spiders—Arthropods everywhere

Fall 2006
Caring for a child with asthma ■ Want a specific song? Invent one! ■ Learning centers for toddlers ■ Supporting young children affected by hurricanes ■ Bringing multiple intelligences outdoors ■ Prepare for a possible flu emergency ■ Where do the leaves go? Help children to be keen observers

Winter 2006
"I'm a boy but I'm pretending I'm a girl": Cross-gendered play in preschool children ■ Recognizing child abuse ■ Build it with a box ■ To say or not to say: Using better language choices to guide children ■ Year one—in pictures ■ Apples in the classroom, apples in the kitchen

Spring 2005
Picture this: Self-esteem in early childhood classrooms ■ Gardening with young children: It's easier than you think! ■ Activities that inspire young gardeners ■ Preventing child sexual abuse ■ Find the beat: Make rhythm instruments for making music ■ Is it just me or is it noisy in here? Sound management in early care and education settings

Summer 2005
Summer sanitation: Review basic practices to prevent disease ■ Teacher-tested ideas for outdoor fun ■ 12 Ways to bring creativity to your classroom ■ Seeing, hearing, and smelling the world: Your senses ■ Climbing onto the pyramid: Food and fitness with children

Fall 2005
Early literacy: The essentials, Part 1: Beginning conversations ■ Birds of a feather: Activities throughout the classroom ■ 10 tips for effective time management ■ Employee pay: Keep it legal ■ Manipulatives: Big learning from little objects ■ Index: Winter 2003 through Fall 2005

Winter 2005
Early literacy: The essentials, Part 2: Sharing books and asking questions ■ Dramatic play—Every day ■ Parent bulletin boards: Communicate with style ■ When parents divorce: Putting children first ■ Baby care: Turn dressing into learning ■ Revisiting Bloom's Taxonomy: Asking better questions

Spring 2004
Planning an open house ■ Fetal Alcohol Syndrome: How you can help ■ Art through the ages—Printmaking with children ■ Multicultural education: Is it really necessary? ■ Row, Row, Row Your Boat—and other ideas for exploring water transportation ■ Type 2 diabetes: Help children lower their risk

Summer 2004
Quarreling: An important part of social development ■ Dolls and doll play: A new look at a familiar prop ■ Becoming a virtual student: College course work and the internet ■ Fun in the sun: Outdoor activities for all ages ■ Positive Behavioral Supports: A process for teaching desired behavior

Fall 2004
Taking a thoughtful approach to scheduling ■ Critters in the classroom ■ Plunge into parachute play: Great games for large groups ■ Planning holiday celebrations: An ethical approach to developing policy and practices ■ Dollhouses and miniatures: Rich learning under the roof ■ Putting children in charge of reading

Winter 2004
Won't you be my neighbor? The wisdom of Fred Rogers ■ Eleven tips for improving circle time ■ Move it: Physical activity for young children ■ Ready, set, travel! ■ Birds: Bringing nature closer ■ Classroom recipes you can't teach without

Back issues 2003 – 2001 Available as of March 1, 2007

Spring 2003
 Real supervision? ■ Famous three-somes: Uncommon uses for common stories ■ Antibiotic resistant bacteria—What everyone needs to know ■ Yes, Michael: Reflections on how inclusion can build social skills ■ Remember the person—Infant mental health ■ Keep children healthy: Prevent can curb infections

Summer 2003
 Financial health of child care facilities affects quality of care ■ Where's the math? ■ Get kids moving: Simple activities to build gross-motor skills ■ Improving parental involvement: 10 tips for success ■ Childhood obesity: The caregiver's role ■ Smart talk: Improving children's oral language

Fall 2003
 A welcoming place ■ Colds and the flu: Common fall and winter health problems ■ Literacy: Creating a print-rich environment ■ Guiding staff training? Vygotsky and Gardner can help ■ Environmental safety: The keystone in program quality ■ Crawling—Is it creeping away? Encourage infant motor development ■ INDEX

Winter 2003
 A teacher's perspective: "Bad guys" and weapon play at school ■ Guiding children in learning centers ■ Emergency care or first aid: Do you know how to respond? ■ Publishing children's writing: Why and how ■ Use the flannel board for storytelling and more

Spring 2002
 Read it again: Choosing and using children's books ■ Guidance techniques that work ■ What to do if you suspect child abuse or neglect ■ Baby care basics: What every caregiver needs to know ■ Learning centers—Why and how

Summer 2002
 Terrific toddlers—Tips for supporting development ■ Moving to literature ■ Protect your back: Guidelines for safer lifting ■ Watch the weather—More activities for all kinds of days ■ Helping young children manage stress

Fall 2002
 Training improves careers—and quality ■ Big box, little box ■ Teaching children about peace ■ Making marks: Art development in young children ■ Teaching physical science—with picture books ■ Skills for school readiness—and life

Winter 2002
 Tips for helping children do science ■ Let me do it: Children's art with less stress and more success ■ Getting preschoolers ready to read and write ■ Technology and children: Making the most of powerful teaching tools ■ The Nutcracker ballet: How to use a video as a big book ■ Easy toys for infants and toddlers

Spring 2001
 Take the classroom outdoors ■ Help children—and families—learn basic fire safety ■ Getting the most bang for your buck: Make training count ■ Finding the way: Geography for young learners ■ Science: The neglected learning center ■ Infants at play

Summer 2001
 From scribbles to stories: Supporting writing development ■ Children with special needs: Helping parents through the grief ■ Separation and divorce: Supporting children and families in times of stress ■ Who are we: Geography for young learners ■ Explorations with the sand and water table ■ Brain games for babies

Fall 2001
 Classroom basics: How environments affect young children ■ Improve quality: Use tool kits ■ How an in-home child care business can save taxes ■ What about the bottle? Answers to common questions ■ Teach life concepts—with picture books ■ INDEX

Winter 2001
 When young children explore anatomy: Dilemma or development? ■ The Americans with Disabilities Act: Overcoming barriers ■ Time out or time change? ■ Watch the weather: Activities for all kinds of days ■ Craft activities—with rebus charts

Back issues 2000 – 1998 Available as of March 1, 2007

Spring 2000
 Infant brain development: Making the research work for early childhood programs ■ Reflections on reading and writing poetry with children ■ Shaken Baby Syndrome: What caregivers need to know ■ Sudden Infant Death Syndrome: Facts for caregivers ■ Get in shape for learning ■ Nature crafts from around the world

Summer 2000
 Summer sanitation: Review basic practices for preventing disease ■ Reflections on crisis management: A real test of quality caring ■ Ready for school? Tips for success ■ Let's have a poetry party: Writing poetry with school-age children ■ Lets play: Learning games for infants and toddlers ■ Water play for summer fun

Fall 2000
 Involving fathers in the preschool classroom ■ The adventures of a guinea pig: Sharing a class pet with children and their families ■ Reflections on a preschool penny arcade ■ Cooking with kids ■ Down on the farm: Activities for all areas of the classroom ■ Rhythm sticks without music

Winter 2000
 Write it down or forget it: How to write anecdotal records ■ Studying dogs and puppies: Two examples of emergent curriculum ■ Breaking the silence: Helping battered moms and their children ■ Where is it? Geography for young learners ■ When a pet dies: Books can help children learn to grieve ■ Play with paper

Spring 1999
 Planning curriculum for infants ■ Family day homes: Get organized ■ After the rain ■ Helping school-agers plan—for fun and learning ■ Ten guidelines for preschool music programs ■ Evaluate your program with an information log

Summer 1999
 Who's caring for caregivers ■ Saying goodbye: Making transitions easier ■ Understanding and preventing toddler biting ■ Creative construction: Unit blocks ■ Classroom materials and equipment—the essentials ■ Learning to hear, hearing to learn ■ Trash to treasure: Activities for school-agers

Fall 1999
 Organization for directors—and anyone else who wants to work smarter ■ Teach '5 a Day' and the pyramid for better nutrition ■ Nine questions all teachers ask about discipline ■ Walls as learning centers: Bulletin boards that teach ■ Building numeracy with homemade materials ■ INDEX

Winter 1999
 Starting on the write foot: Helping parents understand how children learn to read and write ■ Working together to work out conflicts ■ When something isn't right: Developmental delays and disabilities ■ Books by the gerbil cage ■ Building numeracy with more homemade materials

Spring 1998
 Enough time to play? ■ Food safety: Is your kitchen clean? ■ Making connections: Navigating the Internet for early childhood sites ■ Are you listening? ■ Get ready, get set, go with 10

Summer 1998
 Bringing together families and books ■ Developmentally appropriate practice—Buzz words or best practice ■ Developing an outdoor classroom ■ Field trip planning made easy ■ Get in on the action: Cardiovascular fitness for children ■ Finger plays and action rhymes—for infants and toddlers

Fall 1998
 Preservice training ■ Positive discipline: Six strategies for guiding behavior ■ Preschool accreditation ■ The project approach: A different way to plan curriculum ■ The Pueblo project: Authentic Indian studies ■ Talking with children about water

Winter 1998
 Let's celebrate family diversity ■ Classrooms for school-agers ■ I want my blanket ■ Soap and water does the trick ■ Books, boxes, and imagination